Wonder Creator

Creators have more ideas than a place to keep, connect and finish them.

1. Raw material is scattered across a dozen apps, so connections go unseen.
2. AI drafts carry no record of the sources, versions or rights behind them.
3. Who owns what is tracked in memory, if at all.
4. Feeds rank by vanity; makers want honest, specific feedback.

Wonder Creator

What has changed

01 Generative AI makes drafting cheap, which makes provenance, version history and rights records more valuable, not less.

02 Creators are looking for an alternative to engagement-ranked feeds: a calm place for feedback with no likes, trending or ranking.

03 Provider-neutral AI lets the product follow the best models while the creator's material and rights stay put.

PRODUCT

Live, sign-up open

DEFENSIBILITY

Wonder Creator

What compounds

01

Provenance by default

Source, version and rights recorded from the first note, which is hard to retrofit.

02

Governed AI, not autopilot

Hard ceilings for rights, commerce and deletion; honest 'not connected' states.

03

Against vanity metrics

A deliberate position: no likes, no trending, no ranking.

ROADMAP

What comes next

- Complete CreatorPublish's remaining phases
